CTECH NAMED FINALIST IN THE BEST MANAGED SERVICES CATEGORY FOR CDN'S CHANNEL ELITE AWARDS 2015!

CTECH is pleased to announce that we've been named as a finalist in the best managed services category for CDN's Channel Elite Awards 2015! The CDN's Channel Elite Awards recognize IT service providers for their innovation, leadership, and dedication to delivering true value to their clients – and that's exactly what our team does. We strive to help those we serve get the best possible value from their technology investments.

What makes CTECH one of the top managed services providers in the industry? Here's a few important factors:

- We have experience with various technologies and industries: We've worked with companies in a wide range of industries, and we have experience implementing, troubleshooting and supporting a wide range of technologies.
- We operate under principles of integrity and honesty: We know how to architect fantastic systems and we've spent many years automating our systems to reduce overhead, speed up response time, and above all, simplify technology for those we serve.
- We strive to help our clients grow their companies: We strive to help our clients grow, day after day, as we build a solid network for them to work in – ensuring their technology is right for their business at the moment, and well into the future for guaranteed growth.

All finalists for the CDN Channel Elite Awards 2015 are invited to the gala evening event at the Paramount Conference & Event Venue on Thursday, September 10, 2015. We look forward to attending – and we believe the event will be a great opportunity to network with other solution providers – learning what they're doing to help resolve business challenges.
